Copyright, Plagiarism & Ethics
Copyright

According to the Copyright UBC website,

“copyright is the sole and exclusive right of a copyright owner to produce, reproduce, perform, publish, adapt, translate and telecommunicate a work, and to control the circumstances in which others may do any of these things.”

You are personally responsible for ensuring that your thesis complies with Canadian copyright law. The Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies cannot offer legal advice as to whether or not copyright permission is required.
Copyright

Please see the Theses and Dissertations section of Copyright UBC for more information:

copyright.ubc.ca/guidelines-and-resources/support-guides/theses-and-dissertations/

- Workshops & consultations

Avoid copyright violations

- Request permission to use copyrighted material early
  - Journal publication material
  - Tables, figures, illustrations, screenshots, maps logos
- Keep copies of proof that you have permission to use copyrighted material
- Keep track of sources; make citation notes as you go, and cite your sources clearly.
Including Published Material

Some of you may be planning to include published articles in your thesis.

- Material published elsewhere (or in press) must be identified and acknowledged in both the text and the Preface, and smoothly integrated into your thesis.
- Your thesis may require some re-writing or additional material to ensure coherence and consistency with formatting
  - There can only be one Abstract and one References/Bibliography section in the thesis
- Be aware of any possible copyright infringement
Plagiarism

Plagiarism occurs when an individual submits or presents oral or written work of another person as his or her own. It is intellectual theft.

You are responsible for understanding what constitutes plagiarism, and for ensuring that you do not commit any act of plagiarism under any circumstances.
Avoiding Plagiarism

• Don’t copy/paste into your thesis
  • Keep the work of others separate and note citations

• Make it clear which words are yours and which are the work of others
  • If using another’s exact words, use quotation marks or indent.

• Failure to properly cite the work of another is also plagiarism
  • “Accidental” plagiarism is still plagiarism!
  • This applies to draft work, oral presentations, as well as final submissions
Ethics

• Reasons to seek ethics approval:
  • Working directly with animals or humans (or their tissue)
    • This includes interviewing people
  • Working with hazardous material (viruses, diseases, etc.)

• When to obtain ethics approval:
  • Ethics approval should be applied for and obtained BEFORE research begins.

• How to obtain ethics approval:
  • Visit the Office of Research Ethics website for more information

  If you are unsure whether or not you need ethics approval, visit the Office of Research Ethics website or contact them directly.

These resources are designed to help you check the presentation and formatting of your thesis. Please review the resources early in the writing of your thesis, and to use them to check your thesis before sending it to the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

Important: It is your responsibility to proofread your thesis. Grad Studies will check the formatting but does not proofread. You cannot make changes to your thesis after it has been accepted into dRide, so you will not be able to correct any errors after your final submission.

Committee Page

• Effective May 1, 2018, all theses and dissertations must include a page that lists the supervisory committee, and if applicable, the examining committee.

• This page lists all examining committee members and supervisory committee members, but should not include signatures.

• Templates and examples are available on the G+PS website
  – It is really important to use the template.
Preface

Effective May 2013, all theses and dissertations must include a Preface.

The Preface must contain the following:

- A statement detailing your contribution to the identification and design of the research program, performance of the various parts of the research, and analysis of the research data.

- A list of any publications arising from work presented in the dissertation, and the chapter(s) in which the work is located. There must also be a statement detailing the relative contributions of all collaborators and co-authors (including supervisors and members of the supervisory committee) and stating the proportion of research and writing conducted by the student.

- The name of the particular UBC Research Ethics Board, and the project title(s) and Certificate Number(s) of the Ethics Certificate(s) obtained, if ethics approval was required for the research.

Examples:

Chapter 2 is based on work conducted in UBC’s Maple Syrup Laboratory by Dr. A. Apple, Professor B. Boat, and [student’s name]. I was responsible for tapping the trees in forests X and Z, conducted and/or supervised all boiling operations, and performed frequent quality control tests on the product.

A version of chapter 3 has been published. [Student’s name], Apple, A. and Boat, B. (2010) Frequency of Quality Testing in Syrup Crecation. Maple Science J. 255:139-144. I conducted all the testing and wrote most of the manuscript. The section on “Testing Implements” was originally drafted by Boat, B.

Check the first pages of these chapters to see footnotes with similar information.

FINAL SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

This section is only for final, post-defence submission of theses and dissertations.

Please follow these steps in order:

1. Download and complete the following forms from the Graduate Studies website:
   - Dissertation Approval form (doctoral students only)
   - Thesis Approval form (master's students only)
   - Electronic Thesis/Dissertation Submission Cover Sheet

   When you have completed your thesis defence and any changes required by the examining committee, your supervisor and committee member(s) will sign the Thesis or Dissertation Approval form.

2. Submit the completed forms to the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies (UBC-Vancouver students) or the College of Graduate Studies (UBC-Okanagan students). You can submit in person or by mail, but please submit ALL the forms at the same time. You can also scan the forms and send them to graduate.theses@ubc.ca.

   If you are sending forms by mail or courier, please send them to the appropriate address:

   UBC-Vancouver students: Thesis Section, UBC Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies, 170-6371 Crescent Road, Vancouver, BC, V6T 1Z2, Canada

   Please send your forms ahead of your planned submission date. Your cIRcle account cannot be activated until Graduate Studies has received your thesis forms.

3. Set up your cIRcle account by going to the UBC Library cIRcle User Registration page. See cIRcle Instructions for more details. Once you have created your cIRcle account, you will be sent an email message that allows you to set your password.

4. IMPORTANT: After setting your password, send an email to:
   - graduate.theses@ubc.ca (UBCV students)
   - gradtheses.ok@ubc.ca (UBCO students) to request that your account be activated. You must include your name and email address in the body of the email. You will be notified when your account has been activated and you are able to submit your thesis. Please send the email AFTER you have submitted your forms, as your account cannot be activated until the forms have arrived at the appropriate Grad Studies office.

5. Convert your thesis to a single PDF. The PDF file must be compatible with Adobe Acrobat version 5, and must not be in "secured" format. Secured PDFs cannot be archived in perpetuity.

   The preferred conversion tool is Adobe Acrobat. This ETD Tutorial provides information about PDFs including conversion from Microsoft Word to PDF.

   For UBC-Vancouver students, the Koerner Library Research Commons on campus offers help with converting your thesis to a PDF.

   Name the file using the following format, all lower case.
