Instructions

Brief abstract of research in plain language

In plain language, provide a summary of your thesis. Your outline should be readable by someone with no specialized knowledge of the particular field of research.

Scholarships and other awards offered

List only competitive awards based on academic or research excellence and/or leadership or communication abilities. You may include declined awards. You may list up to ten awards starting with the most recent ones.

Publications

Begin with your most recent contributions and list each entry on a new line. Do not include any articles that are currently in preparation or those on which you do not appear as an author. List publications from Master's and Doctoral work only. Use the following headings in the order indicated:

- a) Articles published or accepted in refereed journals
- b) Articles submitted to refereed journals (provide submission number)
- c) Other refereed contributions (e.g., communications, papers in refereed conference proceedings, posters). Do not repeatedly list the same proceeding from multiple conferences, proceedings for future conferences, or your thesis here
- d) Non-refereed contributions (e.g., specialized publications, technical reports, conference presentations, posters)
- e) Technology transfer
- f) Contributions resulting from your participation in industrially relevant R&D activities
- g) Patents and copyrights awarded (e.g., software, but excluding publications)
- h) Patents and copyrights submitted

Use the following format:

- Full authorship as it appears/will appear in the original publication
- Year
- Title
- Publication name and volume
- First and last page numbers

Example

a. Articles published or accepted in refereed journals

Li, H., Applicant, X.X., and Kay, M. (1994) Protein-structure interactions in cell membranes. Journal of Biological Chemistry. 269: 1120-1124 (PhD work).

Notes:

- Publications submitted, accepted or in press: Indicate the date of submission/acceptance and the number of pages submitted.
- Patents: Include the title and names of joint inventors.
- Posters: Indicate the presenting author with an asterisk (*). Example: Applicant, X.X.*.
- Conferences: Indicate whether institutional, regional, provincial, national or international. Make a distinction between oral and poster presentations.
- In all cases, indicate whether the publication resulted from work done in the process of completing your undergraduate, master's or doctoral degree, or from other relevant work experience.
